

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT CALCUTTA

INTERPERSONAL EFFECTIVENESS AND LEADERSHIP EXCELLENCE

Programme Director: Prof. Chetan Joshi

Programme Dates: August 27 - 31, 2024

Programme Venue: MDC, IIM Calcutta

OBJECTIVES

Leadership is the process of interpersonal influence over the activities of team members towards the achievement of organisational goals in a given situation. In contemporary organisational life, managers need to work effectively with peers, supervisors and subordinates. Understanding self and influencing others forms an integral part of this endeavor. This Programme will help you to understand about self and develop your interpersonal effectiveness as well as leadership skills.

PEDAGOGY

Concept sessions, diagnostic instruments, group activities/exercises and case study discussions.

WHO MAY ATTEND

The programme as such is useful for all managers/executives/administrators irrespective of their functions, hierarchical position and business involvement - be it in the private/public sector organisations, multinational companies, government organisations or non-governmental organisations. We believe that an organisation will get an optimum return from this programme by sponsoring a team of 2 - 4 managers who have responsibility for managing a department, division, business group, or the entire organisation.

KEY TOPICS

The Programme content includes two specific modules dealing with the theme of interpersonal effectiveness and leadership skill development.

■ Module 1: Understanding Self and Interpersonal Effectiveness

This module will help participants to become aware of their own needs, perceptions and feelings and how the same affects or is affected by others' needs, perceptions and feelings. Participants thus become aware about the antecedents and consequences of their interpersonal styles. Individual participants will become aware of their primary conflict handling styles, negotiation style and team work styles.

■ Module 2: Building Leadership Potential and Skills

Individual participants will diagnose their leadership styles and why the same is or is not appropriate in different situations. Participants will also learn about transformational leadership, leading and managing change, crisis leadership and get feedback on their approach to handle/exercise influence in resolving conflicts and leading teams.

PROGRAMME DIRECTOR

Dr. Chetan Joshi is a Professor in the Organizational Behavior area group at IIM Calcutta. He holds an MBA from University of Roorkee and a doctorate in management from Richard Ivey Business School, Western University (formerly University of Western Ontario), Canada. His award winning research has been presented at international conferences such as the Administrative Sciences Association of Canada, Society for Industrial and Organisational Psychology, International Congress of Psychology and the Academy of Management. He has developed simulations and exercises which have been showcased at the annual conferences of the OBTS Teaching Society for Management Educators. His co-authored case studies and teaching notes are available from Harvard Business School Publishing.

In addition to Dr. Chetan Joshi, other faculty member(s) with expertise in the areas of Interpersonal Effectiveness and Leadership may also teach in the programme.

PARTICIPANTS' FEEDBACK

“My experience in the IELE MDP was awesome. The faculty members teaching in the programme were excellent. The content covered was correlated with self-study cases or activity based learnings. After the end of the programme we were able to judge ourselves and definitely came to know the areas of improvement.”

“This programme provided an opportunity to introspect in many behavioral aspects and how we can improve on our drawbacks to excel in the corporate world (or even in daily life). I would recommend the programme because you get to live the life of an IIM student (in some respect) and an opportunity to learn something new.”
